To that end, Declarant will establish an Architectural Standards Committee (the "ASC"). The purpose of the appointed ASC is to maintain standards as to appearance, shape, dimension, construction material, and color among other things, in order to establish a desirable consistency and harmony, among adjacent and surrounding structures and relative to location and topography.

Section 6.02. Advance Approval Required. All construction (which term shall include within its definition: staking, elearing, excavation, grading and other site work) or modification (except inferior alterations not affecting the external structure or appearance of any building) including plantings or removal of plants, trees or shrubs shall not take place except in strict compliance with this Article, until the requirements below have been fully met and written approval of the Architectural Standards Committee ("ASC") has been obtained pursumit to Section 6.03 below. Unless approved in accordance with this Article, no structure, including, but not fimited to: fences, porches, patios, decks, privacy walls, gates, pools, whitpools or other pools, and awnings, shall be placed, erected or installed upon any Lot and/or Dwelling Unit.

Unless otherwise approved by the ASC, all improvements constructed on any pottion of Corolla Bay shall be designed by and built in accordance with the plans and specifications of an approved licensed architect and an approved licensed general contractor. For the purposes of this Article, an "Approved Licensed Architect" and "Approved Licensed General Contractor" shall mean an architect or general contractor properiy licensed who has made application and has been approved by the ASC. The requirements and procedure for becoming an approved architect or general contractor shall be determined by the ASC.

This Aticle shall not apply to the sctivities of the Declarant, nor to construction of improvements or modifications to the Common Elements by or on behalf of the Association

This Article may not be amended during the Declarant Control Period without the Declarant's prior written consent.

Section 6.03. Architectural Standards Committee. During the Declarant Control Period, the Declarant retains the right to determine the composition and appointment of all members of the ASC. Thereafter, all appointments shall be made by the Board.

Responsibility for administration of the Architectural Guidelines and review of all applications for construction and modifications under this Article VI shall be handled by the ASC. The members of the ASC need not be Owners within Corolla Bay and may but not need include: architects, engineers or similar professionals, whose compensation, if any, shall be established and remitted from time to time by the Declarant. The Declarant may establish reasonable fees to be charged by the ASC for review of applications hereinunder and may require such fees to be paid in full prior to review of any application.

Section 6.04. Guidelines and Procedures. The Declarant shall prepare the initial design and development guidelines and applications and review procedures (the "Architectural Guidelines") which shall be applicable to all construction activities within Corolla Bay.

Prior to submission of any plans, an Owner must first obtain a copy of the Architectural Guidelines and review thase Guidelines and complete the application with the Architectural Guidelines as the ASC will not review any application other than the uniform application prepared by the ASC.

The ASC shall adopt the Architectural Guidelines and thereatter shall have sole and full authority to reasonably amend the Archifectural Guidelines from time to time without the consent of the Association, provided sad amendments are consistent with the Statement of Pupose set forth within this Declaration; howevet, any amendments during the Declarant Control Period must have the prior written consent of the Declarant. Subsequent to the Declarant Control Period, any amendments to the Architectural Guidelines may be either proposed by the ASC to the Association or may be proposed initially by the Association and any adoption thereafter must be by a majority vote of the Board.

The ASC shall make the Architechral Gudelines available fo Ownes and approved Architeots and General Contractors who seek to engage in any development and construction in Corolla Bay and all such persons shall conduct their activities in strict accordance with the Architectural Guidelines. A written document acknowledging receipt of the Axchtectural Guidelines shall be signed by the appropriate General Contrachor prior to commencement of any construction activity. All Owners, Architects, General Contractors, subcontractors, materialmen and their agents shall conduct their activities strictly in accordance with the Architectural Guidelines.

Any amendments to the Architectural Gudelines as may be reasonably adopted from time to time by the ASC in accordance with this Section 6.04 shall apply to construction and modifications commenced after the date of such amendment only, and shall not require modifications or removal of structures previously approved by the ASC once the approved construction or modification has commenced.

The ASC may promulgate from time to time detailed slandards and procedures governing its area of resporsibility and practice. In addition thereto, the following shall apply: plans and specifications showing the nature, kind, shape, color, size, materials and location of any proposed construction and any modification, addition or alteration to any prior approvals shall be submitted to the ASC for approval as to quality of workmanship and design and as to harmony of external design with existing structures, and as to location in relation to surrounding structures, topography and finishing grade elevation.

The plans to be submitted must include site plans which depict all access sireets and walkways, pathways, and other exterior improvements, fill plan, if any, indicating runoff, foundation plan, exterior and lighting plan. The architectural drawings submitted must include total enclosed heated/air conditioned square footage, the floor plans, including an exact computation of the square pootage of each floor and drawn to the scale of one quarter inch equals one foot, elevation drawings for all sides which shall indicate cxisting grade, fill and finished floor elevation, detalled drawings of typical wall sections and any other extra features, and a complete identification of colors and materials, including shingles, siding and color.

At time of submission, three sets of plans shall be submitted with the completed ASC application form along with an application fee of $$ 500.00$ and a secrrity deposit of $\mathbf{$ 2 , 0 0 0 . 0 0}$. Construction of all improvements must be completed within nine months from the date the ASC grants an applicant approval. The security deposit will be refurned after completion of construction and compliance with the approved plans.

Section 6.05. Non-Precedential Nature of Approvals. Each applicant acknowledges that the composition of the ASC will change from time to time and that decisions regarding aesthetic matters and interpretation and application of the Architectaral Guidelines may reasonathy vary from time to time. In addition, each applicant acknowledges that it may not always be possible to identify objectionable features of proposed Improvements until the Improvements are complefed, in which case it may be unreasonable to require changes fo the Improvements previously approved, but the ASC may tefuse to approve similar Improvements in the future. Approval of fmprovements for any particular applicant or Dwelling Unit shall not be deemed a waiver of the right to withhold approval as to any similar Improvements subsequently submitted for approval.

Section 6.06. No Waiver of Funte Approvals. The approval of the ASC of any proposals or plans and specifications or drawings for any work done or proposed, or in connection with any other matter requiring the approval and consent of the ASC, shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver of any right to withhokd approval or consent as to any similar proposals, plans and specifications, drawings or matters subsequently or additionally submitted for approval or consent.

Section 6.07. Basis for Decision and Variance. The ASC shall approve or disapprove any application in its reasonable discretion, based primarily on adherence with the Architectural Guidelines; however, the ASC reserves the right to grant variances based on architectural metit and on existing landscape conditions. The ASC may also consider the nature, kind, shape, height of materials and location of the proposed improvements, harmony with surrounding structures and topography, and other factors including purcly acsthetic considerations, which in the sole opinion of the ASC will affect the desirability or suitability of the construction.

Section 6.08. Limitation of Liability. Review and approval of any application porsuant to this Article is made on the basis of aesthetic considerations only and the ASC shall not bear any responsibility for ensuring the struchural integrity or sounduess of approved construction or modifications or for ensuring compliance with building codes and other govermmental rexuirements. Neither the Declarant, the ASC or the Association, or member of any of the foregoing shall be held liable for any injury, damages or loss arising out of the manner or quality of approved construction on or modifications to any Dwelling Unit.

Section 6.09. Enforcement. Any constroction, alteration or other work done in violation of this Article or in a manner inconsistent with the application approved by the ASC shall be deemed to be nonconforming. Upon written request from the ASC ("Notice of Nonconformity"), an Owner shall, at his own cost and expense, promptly remove the nonconformity and restore the property to substantially the same condition as existed prior to the creation of the nonconformity. In the event an Owner is in disagreement as to the Notice of Nonconformity, then the Owner has the right to request a hearing before a three-member panel designated by the ASC provided the Owner delivers written notice for request of hearing to the Secretary of the Association no later than ten (10) days ftom the date the Owner received the Notice of Nonconformity. Upon receipt of any request for hearing, the Secretary of the Association shall thereafter calendar a hearing not less than seven (7) days nor more than fifteen (15) days before the ASC. Subject to procedures as may be established by the ASC, any Owner may appeal the ASC's decision to the Board. The Board at its election may either calendar a further hearing or uphold, modify or reverse the decision of the three member pancl of the ASC and said decision by the Board shall be final. Upon issuance of the Notice of Nonconformity, all construction shall be stayed pending compliance by the Owner or resolution by the ASC or review and final decision by the Board. In accord, a stopwork order may be posted on the Owner's property by the ASC. Should an Owner fail to remove and restore any nonconformity as required hereunder, the Association or its desigriess shall have the right to enter the property, remove the violation and restore the property to substantially the same condition as existed prior to the construction, alteration or other work. All costs, together with the interest at the maximum rate then allowed by law, including reasonable attorney's fees allowed by the Act, may be assessed agrinst the nonconforming Lot or Dwelling Unit and collected as an Individual Assessment pursuant to Section 8.04.

Any contractor, subcontractor, agent, employee or other invitec of an Owner who fails to comply with the terms and provisions of this Article may be excluded by the Declarant during the Declarant Control Period from Corolla Bay, subject to the notice and hearing procedures established by the ASC. In such eyent, neither the Association, its officers nor directors shall be held liable to any person for exercising the rights granted by this Section.

In addition to the foregoing, the ASC shall have the authority and standing, on behalf of the Association, to pursue all legal and equitable remedies available to enforce the provisions of this Article and the decistions of the ASC.

Section 6.10. Expiration of Approval. if work is not commenced within nine months from the date the ASC approves the Plans for such work, then such approval shall be deemed revoked by the ASC unless the ASC, in its sole discretion, extends the time for commencing work. All work covered by such approval shall be completed within one year after the commencement thereof, except for such period of time as such completion is rendered impossible or would resuit in great hardship due to strikes, fires, national energencies, critical materials shortages, or other infervening forces beyond the control of the Ownet or Occupant, unless the ASC, in its sole discretion, extends the time for completion. For the purposes of this Declaration, work on an Improvement shall be deemed to have "conmenced" when the Improvement site has been graded and, in the case of buildings, footings or foundations have been poured or otherwise installed.

Section 6.11. Liability for Violation, Any person violating any provisions of this Article shall be liable for all costs incurred by the Declarant or the ASC or any other person who seeks to enjoin or otherwise remedy such violations, including, but not limited to, reimbursement for reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred in connection with said enforcement.

Section 7.12 Signage. No signage of any kind, including "for sale" and "for rent" shall be erected within the Corolla Bay without the written consent of the ASC, except entry signs, directional signs and signs showing the name of a Dwelling Unit or other signs as erected by Deolarant during the Declarant Control Period. Any permitted signage shall conform to uniform signage approved by the ASC which signage shall not contain the logo or name of any real estate agency or real estate agent other than the exclusive agent appointed by Declarant during the Declarant Control Period which shall be BD&A Realty & Construction, Inc: or any other agency designated by the Declarant. Declarant shall bave the right to erect signs as they, in their discretion, deem appropriate. Each Owner shall display an exterior sign on the Dwelling Unì as approved by the ASC which includes the name and street address of the Dwelling Unit. Prohibitive signage shall also include flags of any kind that are not to be displayed on any Lot or family Dwelling Unit unless the owners receive writen approval from the ASC.

Section 7.13. Site Line Limitations. No fence, wall hedge or strub planting which obstructs sight lines at elevations between two and six feet above roadways shall be placed or permitted to remain on any comer Lot within the trangular area fomed by the street property lines, or in the case of a rounded property comer, from the intersection of the street property lines extended. The same sight line limitations shall apply on any Lot within ten (10) feet from the intersection of a street property line with the edge of a driveway or alley pavement. No tree line is maintained at sufficient height to prevent obstruction of sight lines. Declarant reserves the right to waive the foregoing requirements with respect to portions of any Lots and/or Villas that also are considered Common Area.

Section 7.14. Time Sharing. No time-share ownership of propery is permitted in Corolla Bay. For purposes of this section, the tern "Time-Share Ownership" shall mean a method of ownership of an interest in a properiy under which the exclusive right of use, possession or occupancy of the property circulates among the various Owners on a periodically reoccurring basis over a scheduled period of time.

Section 7.15. Compliance Provisions.
(a) Owner's Responsibility. Each Owner and Owner's family members, guests and tenants shall conform and abide by the Covenants contained in this Declaration and any Rules and Regulations which may be adopted from time to time by the Association. Each Owner shall be responsible for assuring such compliance, and any violation by family members, guests or tenants may be considered to be a violation by the Owner.
(b) Notice Hearing and Eines. Unless otherwise provided (as in Articles VI and Articie EX), any Owner who is belicved to be in violation of this Dectaration or any Rules and Regulations adopted by the Board, shall be sent a "Notice of Violation" setting forth the violation, any requested corrective action, and if applicable, notice of any proposed suspension of privileges within Corolla Bay and any fines which may be assessed. Upon receipt of a Notice of Violation, the Owner may either take the corrective action set forth within the Notice of Violation or in the event an Owner is not in agreement with the terms of the Notice of Violation, then prior to any proposed suspension or assessment of any fines, the Owner has the right to a hearing before the Board provided the Owner delivers written notice for request of hearing to the Secretary of the Association no later than ten (10) days from the date the Owner received the violation. Upon receipt of any request for hearing, the Secretary of the Association shall thereafier calendar a hearing not less than seven (7) days nor more than thirty (30) days before the Board. If it is determined that the Owner is in violation and a fine shall be imposed, a single fine not to exceed $$ 100.00$ may be imposed for the violation up to the time of the hearing and without further hearing, for each day after the decision by the Board that a violation has occurted. In the event it is defermined that privileges are to be suspeaded, the suspension may continue without further hearing until the violation or delinquency is cured. Alt costs, together with interest at the maximurn rate permitted by law, including reasonable attorney fees as allowed by the Act may be assessed against the Owner's property and collected as an Individual Assessment pursuant to Section 8.04. Notwithstanding the enforcement provisions provided berein, the primary goal is not to punish but to conciliate and resolve problems. The Board may suggest or approve agreements and withhold the agreement of paying a fine if the agreement is honored. Any fines levied shall be charged against the Owner's property as an Individual Assessment pursuant to Section 8.04. The provisions provide herein for notice and hearing only apply to those matters which could result in an individual assessment being levied ard do not apply to any other type of assessments.
(c) Additional Renedies. All remedies listed in this section are non-exclusive and may be applied cumulatively.

Section 8.01. Creation of Assessments. Personal Obligation and Lien. Each owner, other than the Declasant of any Lot or Dwelling Unit, by acceptance of a deed therefore, whether or not it shall be so expressed in any such deed or other conveyance, shall be deemed to and does hereby covenant and agree to all the covenants, easements and restrictions of this Declaration and to pay to the Association:
(1) Annual Assessments or charges;
(2) Special Assessments for capital improvements (such annual and special assessments to be fixed, established and collected from time to time as herein or in the Bylaws provided); and
(3) Individuai Assessments levied against an Owner to reimburse the Association for extra costs for maintenance and/or repairs caused by the failure of such Owner to maintain such Owner's individual Lot or Dwelling Unit and Improvements thereon, or for damage to or destruction of Common Elements by the Owner or the Owner's guests, tenants, licensees, agents, or family members, all of such assessments and charges to be fixed, established and collected as hereinafter provided; together with the costs, fees and expenses including reasonable attomey's fees (the "costs of collection") incurred by the Association incidental to the enforcement of any violation of Articles VI, VII, IX, any Rules and Regulations or other provisions of this Declaration, collection of assessments or collection of damages or charges arising under the Governing Documents. All assessments together with inferest and late payment fees, and any costs of collection shall be a charge on the land and shall be a continuing lien upon the Lot or Dwelling Unit against which each such assessment is made. Each such assessment, together with such interest thereon and cost of collection thereof as hereinafter provided, shall also be a personal and continuing obligation of the person or persons jointiy and severally, who is (are) the Owner (s) of such Lof or Dwelling Unit at the time when the assessment fell due.

An Owner's personal obligation for payment of such assessments shall not pass to such Owner's successors in title unless expressly assumed by them, but the lien against such Owner's Lot or Dwelling Unit as established in this Declaration shall continue in effect (unless terminated as otherwise provided herein). No Owner shall be exempt from liability for any assessment provided for herein by reason or non-use of such Owner's Lot or Dwelling Unit or the Common Elenents.

Section 8.02. Purpose of Assessments and Budgeting for Reserves. The assessments levied by the Association shall be used exclusively to promote the health, security, safety and welfare of the residents of Corolla Bay and in particular for:

(a) The improvenont, maintenance and replacement of the Common Elements (including, without limitation, the landscaped right-of-way);
(b) Establishment of capital replacement reserves. The Board shall prepare and review at least anmally a reserve budget for the Common Elements. The budgets shall take into account the number and nature of the replaceable assets, the expected life of each asset, and the expected repair or replacement cost. The Board shall include in the Common Expense budget adopted pursuant to Section 8.03 a capital comfribution to fund reserves in an amount sufficient to meet the projected need with respect to both amount and timing by anmal contributions over the budget period;
(c) For the acquisition of services and facilities devoted to the foregoing purgoses or for the use and enjoyment of the Common Elements, including but not limited to, the cost of repairs, replacements, additions, the cost of labor, equipment, materials, management and supervision, the payment of taxes assessed against the Common Elements, the procurement and maintenance of insurance related to the Common Elements, its facilities and use in accordance with the Governing Documents, the employment of counsel to represent the Association if necessary, and such other requirements as may be necessary to perform all of the aforesaid functions and purposes:
(d) Carrying out the purposes and duties of the Association as stated in its Articles and Bylaws and as stated in this Declaration.

Without limiting the generality of the above-described purposes, the assessments levied by the Association may be used for the acquisition, construction, improvement (including landscaping and planting) and maintenance of any common facilities located or to be located in the Common Elemeats and Landscaped Rights of Way, and any landscaping easenent areas or Entrance Monument easement areas as shall be indicated on the recorded plats of Corolla Bay.

Section 8.03. Initial Anpual Assessment and Budgeting Process.
(a) The initial anmal assessment for the calendar year 2008 shall be as follows:

| Type of Property | Annual Assessment |
| :--- | ---: |
| Vacant Lot | $$ 500.00$ |
| Dwelling Unit | $$ 1,000.00$ |

(b) Budgeting Processing

The annual assessment for each successive calendar year thereafer shall be established by the Board subject to Article VIII. Within thirty (30) days after adoption of the yearly budget, the Board shall provide to all Owners a summary of the budge and a notice of the mecting to consider ratification of the budget. The Board shall set a date for a meeting of the Owners to consider ratification of the budget, such meeting to be held not less than ten ( 10 ) nor more than sixty ( 60 ) days after mailing of the summary and notice. A quonum need not be present at such neeting and the budget is fatified unless at that meeting the Owners entitied to exercise fiftyone percent ( $51 \%$ ) of the votes in the Association reject the budget. In no event may the Board or membership of the Association decrease the amount of the anmul assessment for any calendar year from the amount of the annual assessment for the previous calendar year.

Section 8.04. Individual Assessment. An Individual Assessment may be levied against any Owner to reimburse the Association for costs incurred in bringing the Owner and/or such Owner's Lot or Dwelling Unit into compliance with the Goveming Documents, provided such hudividual Assessment may only be levied on the affimative vote of the Board, after notice of an opportunity for hearing has been provided to the Owner pursuant to the applicable provisions of either Seetion 6.09 , Section 7.14 or Section 9.03 .

Section 8.05. Emergency Assessments, In iddition to the annual assessments, special assessments, and individual assessments authorized herein, in the event of an "Emergency" (as hereinafter defined); the Board, on behalf of the Association, in the Board's sole discretion, may levy an ennergency assessment for the purpose of taking preventative, protective, stabilizing of renedial actions to protect the Common Elements or any Improvements located thereon, and to further reconstruct, repair or replace any portion of the Property or Improvements following such Emergency. An "Emergency" for purposes of this Section 8.05 includes, but is not limited to, floods, hurricanes, tomadoes, fires, acts of God or other natarally occurring phenomena. An emergency assessment shall be due and payable as established by the Board.

Section 8.06. Calculation and Collection of Assessments.

(a) Except as otherwise set forth herein, assessments other than Individual Assessments must be fixed at a uniform rate for all Lots. Annual Assessments other than Individual or Special Assessments may be collected on a monthly, quarterly, anmual or other basis, as determined by the Board, and may be collected in advance. The Board shall have the power at any time and from time to time, in its sole discretion and upon such terms and conditions as the Board deems appropriate, to allow percentage discounts to Owners who pay assessments earlier than would otherwise be required for such payments; provided, however, all such discounts shall be made available to and applied uniformly to the Owners of all Lots that are subject to the assessment to which the discount applies.
(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contraty that may appear in this Declaration, all Lots and Dwefling Units owned by Deelarant shall be exempt from Annual, Special, and Individual Assessments, until the initial sate of such Lot or Dwelling Unit to a third party.

Section 8.07. Commencement of Assessments: Establishing the Amount Due Dates. The amnual assessment shall commence with respect to the Dweiling Units and Lots in any Phase on the first day of the month immediately following the month in which the first Lot or Dwelling Unit in such Section of Corolla Bay is conveyed to the Owner by Declarant, and the amount of the first Anmal Assessment applicable to the Lot or Dwelling Unit shall be prorated in accordance with the number of months remaining in the calendar year on and after it becomes applicable to the Lot or Dwelling Unit. A Special Assessment and/or Yudividual Assessment shall be applicable to each Lot or Dwelling Unit subject to this Deciaration at the time such assessment is established. The Board shall establish the amount of the annual assessment for the ensuing calendar year at least sixty ( 60 ) days in advance of the beginning of such year, and, if the amount of the annual assessment changes from the amount for the current year, the Board shall cause written notice of the new annual assessment to be sent to at least one of the Owners of each Lot or Dwelling Unit subject to the assessment. Subject to any limitations contained in the Goveming Documents and applicable laws, the Board is empowered at any time and from time to time to establish the due dates and penalties for late payment of annual and special assessments. The failure of the Board to establish the amount of any annual assessment as required herein shall not be a waiver or modification in any respect of the provisions of this Declaration, or a waiver of the Bosrd's right to establish the annual assessment at any time during the calendar year to which it is applicable, or a release of any Owner from the obligation to pay the assessment or any installment thereof for that or any subsequent year, and the anmual assessment established for the immediately preceding calendar year shall continue in effect until the Board has established the new annual assessment.

Section 8.08. Effect of Non-Payment of Assessment: The Personal Obligation of the Owner: The Lien Remedies of Association. If any Owner fails to pay an Assessment when due and payable, the Association shall be subject to a late charge in the amount of five percent ( $5 \%$ ) of the delinquent Assessment and shall bear interest from the due date at the rate equal to the iesser of eighteen percent ( $18 \%$ ) per annum or the highest rate of interest permitted by law. If an Assessment is not paid by the due date, it shall become delinquent and the Association may thereafter send a notice of such delinquency to the Owner, stating that if the delinquent Assessment is not paid in full within ten (10) days after the date of such notice the Association may thereatter file a written notice of such delinquency (the "Lien Notice") in the Clerk's Office of the Currituck County Superior Court to evidence the lien upon the Lot or Dwelling Unit against which such Assessment was made. Such Lien Notice, setting forth the amount of such mpaid Assessment, the name of the Owner of the Unit, and the legal description of the Lot or Dwelling Uxit shall be signed by an agent of the Association and shall be recorded in the Clerk's Office. The Association may foreciose the lien for the Assessments provided for in this Declaration in the same manner as provided for a foreclosure of a power of sale in a Deed of Trust. The Association may also secure and collect Assessments by any other means permitted by law. In addition, either in the first instance or for deficiency following foreclosure, the Association may bring an action at law to eollect such indebtedness against the Owner personally obligated to pay the same. In accord with Section 47F-3-116 of the Act, the Association is the prevailing party in any action brought to recover assessments shall be entitled to reimbursement for all costs and reasonable attomey's fees incurred in connection with the collection of the delinquent assessments which shall be added to the amount of the assessments due and shall be secured by the Association fien. Interest, late charges, costs, and attomeys' fees of any such action, including the cost of filing the Lien Notice, shall be added to the amount of the Assessments due and shall be secured by the Assessment lien. The personal obligation of the Owner to pay such Assessment shall remain his personal obligation for the statutory period and shall be binding on any successor in interest.

If the Assessment or Assessments are not paid within thirty (30) days after the delinquency date, the Assessment or Assessments shall bear interest from the date of delinquency at the rate of interest set by the Board, not to exceed the maximum rafe permitted by law, and the Board acting on behalf of the Association may authorize its officers to bring appropriate civil action against the Ownet personally obligated to pay the same or to foreclose the lien against any such Lot or Dwelling Unit and there shall be added to the amount of such assessment, the costs of such action and reasonable attomey's fees as allowed by the Act or other cost incurred by the Association. In the cvent a judgment is obtained against any Owner for stch Assessments, such judgment shall include interest on the Assessment at the maximum rate permitted by lapy and a reasonable attorneys' fee as allowed by the Act together with the costs of the action.

Section 8.09. Subordination of the Lien to Mortgages or Deeds of Trust. The lien of the assessments provided for herein shall be absolutely subordinate to the lien of any first mortgage or deed of trust now or hereafter placed upon any Lot or Dwelling Unit, subject to assessment. The subordination shall not relieve any Lot or Dwelling Unit from liability for any assessments now or hereaftor due and payable, but the lien thereby created shall be secondary and subordinate to aty first mortgage or deed of trust as if said lien were a second mortgage or deed of trust, irrespective of when such first mortgage or deed of trust was executed and recorded.

Section 8.10. Exempt Property. All Common Elements, Limited Common Elements, any real property owned by govertumental eatitles, and all Lots, Dwelling Units, and other portions of the Property owned by Declarant, shall be exempt from the assessments and liens for same created herein. Provided, however, no real property or improvements subject to this Declaration and occupied and used for residential dwelling purposes shall be exempt from such assessments and liens, other thaa Lots and Dwelling Units owned by Declarant and any affiliates of Declarant which property shall be exempt from assessments during the Declarant Control Period.

Section 8.11. Statement of Common Expenses. In accord with Section 47F-3-118 of the Act, the Board or managing agent shall provide any member, Ownet, contract purchaser or Mortgagee, within ten (10) days after a written nequest therefore, with a written statement of all unpaid assessments for Common Expenses due with respect to a specific Lot or Dwelling Unit (or a statement that the amount of unpaid assessments is zero). No contract purchaser, Mortgagee, or purchaser from a Mortgagee requesting such a statement shall be liable for, nor shall the Lot or Dwelling Unit conveyed to such Person relying on such statement be subject to, a lien for any unpaid assessments cue prior to the date of sivch statement in excess of the amount set forth on such statement; provided, however, that this section shall not be interpreted to release any Owner from personal liability for such assessments levied while such Person owned the Lot or Dwelling Unit. The Board may impose a reasonable charge for the preparation of such statement to covet the cost of preparation.

Any balance from the proceeds of casualty insurance paid to the Association remaining after satisfactory completion of repair and replacement shall be retained by the Association as part of the general zeserve fund for repair and replacement of the Common Elements and/or Landscaped Rights-of-Way.

Section 12.03. Insufficient Proceeds. If the insurance proceeds are insufficient to repair or replace any loss or damage, the Association may levy a special assessment in the manner previded for in this Declaration, to cover the deficiency.

ARTICLE XIII
Compliance and Enforcement
Section 13.01. Preventive Remedies
(a) Every Owner and occupant of a Unit shall comply with the Governing Documents. The Board may impose sanctions for violation of the Governing Documents after notice and a hearing in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 7.15(b) of the Declaration. Such sanctions may include, without limitation:
(i) Imposing reasonable monetary fines subject to the provisions of Section 47F-3-107. 1 of the Act, which shall constitute a lien upon the violator's Unit. (In the event that any occupant, guest, or invitee of a Unit violates the Governing Documents and a fine is imposed, the fine shall first be assessed against the violator provided, however, the Owner shall pay the fine upon notice from the Board if the fine is not paid by the violator within the time period set by the Board;
(ii) Suspending an Owter's right to vote;
(iii) Suspending any services provided by the Association to an Owner or the Owner's Unit if the Owner is more than 30 days delinquent in paying any Assessment or other charge owed to the Association;
(iv) Exercising seff-help or taking action to abate any violation of the Governing Documents in a non-emergency situation;
(v) Requiring an Owner, at its own expense, to remove any structure or improvement on such Owner's Unit in violation of the Governing Documents and to restore the Unit to its previous condition and, upon failure of the Owner to do so, the Board or its designee shall have the right to enter the property, remove the violation, and restore the property to substantially the same condition as previously existed and any such action shall not be deemed a trespass;
(vi) Without liability to any Person, precluding any contractor, subcontractor, agent, employec, or other invitee of an Owner who fails to comply with the terms and provisions of Article VI and the Architectural Guidelines from continuing or performing any futher activities in Corolla Bay, and
(vii) Levying individual Assessments to cover costs incurred by the Association to bring a Lot or Dwelling Unit into compliance with the Governing Documents.

In addition, the Board may take the following enforcement procedures to ensure compliance with the Governing Docments without the necessity of compliance with the procedures set forth in Section 7.15(b) of the Declaration:
(i) Exercising self-help in any emergency sitwation (specifically including, but not limited to, the towiag of vehicles that are in violation of parking rules and regulations); and
(ii) Bringing suit at law or in equity to enjoin any violation or to recover monetary danages or both.
(b) The decision to pursue enforcement action in any particular case shall be left to the Board's discretion, except that the Board shall not be arbitrary or capricious in taking enforcement action. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing sentence, the Board may determine that, under the circurustances of a particular case:
(i) The Association's position is not strong enough to justify taking any or further action; or
(ii) The covenant, restriction, or rule being enforced is, or is likely to be constued as, inconsistent with applicable law; or
(iii) Although a technical violation may exist or may have occurred, it is not of such a material nature as to be objectionable to a reasonable person or to justify expending the Association's resources; or
(iv) That it is not in the Associstion's best interests, based upon bardship, expense, of other reasonable criteria, to pursue enforcement action.

Such a decision shall not be construed a waiver of the right of the Association to enforce such provision at a later time under other circumstances or prechude the Association from enforcing any other covenant, restriction, or rule.

The Association, by contraet or other agreement, may enforce applicable governmental ordinances, and permit govermmental authorities to enforce ordinances within Corolla Bay for the benefit of the Association and its Members.

Section 13.02. Laplied Rights; Board Authority,

The Association may exercise any right or privilege given to it expressly by the Governing Documents, or reasonably implied from or reasonably necessary to effectuate any such right or privilege. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Goveming Documents, or by law, all rights and powers of the Association may be exercised by the Board without a vote of the membership.

The Board may institute, defend, settle, or intervene on bethaff of the Association in mediation, binding or non-binding arbitration, litigation, or administrative proceedings in matters pertaining to Common Elements, enforcement of the Governing Docaments, or any othcr civil claim or action. However, the Governing Documents shall not be construed as creating any independent legal duty to institute litigation on behalf of of in the name of the Association or its members.

Section 13.03. Cunulative Remedies. The remedies hereby specified are cumulative, and the listing of specific remedies herein shall not be deemed to preclude any aggrieved Person's right and privilege to resort to any other remedy provided hereunder or at law or in equity.

Section 13.04. Failure to Enforce Nof a Waiver of Rights. No delay or failure on the part of an aggrieved person to invoke any available remedy in respect to a violation of any provision of this Declaration shall be held to be a waiver by the Person of (or an estoppel of that Person to assent) any right available to him upon recurrence or continuance of such violation or the occurrence of a different violation, nor shall there be imposed upon Declarant, the Association, the Board, or the ASC a duty to take aty action to onforce this Declaration.

Section 13.05. Constructive Notice and Acceplance Each Owner, Occupant, or other Person, by acceptance of a deed conveying title to any Lot or Dwelling Unit in Corolla Bay, or the execution of a contract for the purchase therevf, or the acceptance of a lcase or license therefore, or the taking possession theteof, whether from Declarant or other Owner or lessee, shall for himself, his successors and assigns, be deemed to (i) accept such deed, contract, lease, license, or possession upon and subject to each and all of the provisions of this Declaration, and (ii) covenant to and with Declarant and the other Owners to keep, observe, comply with, and perform the requirements of this Declaration, whether or not any reference to this Declaration is contained in the instrument by which such Person acquired said interest.

Section 13.06. Liability for Non-Enforcement. Neither Declarant, the ASC, the Board, the Association, or any Member thereof, nor their successors or assigns shall be liable for damages to any Owner, licensee, or occupant by reason of any mistake in judgment, negligence, nonfeasance, action, or inaction in the administration of the provisions of this Declaration or for the enforcement or failure to enforce this Declaration or any part thereof; and every Owner or occupant, by acquiring an interest in the Property, agrees that he will not bring any action or suit against Declarant, the ASC or its members, the Board or its members, or the Association to recaver damages or to seek equitable retief on account of their enforcement or non-enforcement of this Declaration.

ARTICLE XIV  Miscellaneous Provisions

Section 14.01. Duration. This Declaration and the terms, covenants, provisions set forth herein shall run with and bind the Property and shall inure to the benefit of every Owner of a Lot in the Property, including Declarant, and their respective heirs, successors, and assigns, for a term beginning on the date this Declaration is recorded and including December 31, 2037. Beginning on and including fanuary 1, 2038, the easements, covenants, conditions and restrictions herein shall be automatically extended for successive period(s) of ten (10) years each unless, af duly called annual or special meeting of the Association at which a quorum is present held prior to the expiration of the applicable time period, termination of this Declaration is approved by the affirmative vote of seventy-five percent ( $75 \%$ ) or more of the wotes cntitice to be cast by the Members present or represented by proxy. A vote by the membership on termination of this Declaration may be held only upon presentation to the Association of a petition for termination signed by Members possessing no less than twentyfive percent ( $25 \%$ ) of the total eligible vote of the membership of the Association, which petition, in the case of an annual meeting of the Association, shall be presented to the Association prior to the date that notice of the annual meeting is sent to the Members. The Association shall give written notice of any mual or special meeting, at which temination of this Declargtion is to be considered and voted upon to all Owners at least thirty (30) days in advance of the date of such meeting, which notice shall set foth that temination of this Declaration will be considered and voted mpon at such meeting. If the membership wotes to terminate this Declaration, such termination shall be effective upon the expiration of the then applicable time period for which the Declaration is in existence, or shall be effective on such date thereafter as may be specified in the resolution of termination passed by the membership as required herein (it being the intention of this Section, notwithstanding anything to the contrary appearing herein, that if the membership has voted to terminate this Declaration, the membership may set a date of termination that may result in this Deelaration continuing to be in effect for a period of less than ten (10) years following the expiration of a preceding time period in which this Declaration was in effect). The quorum required at the ammal or special meeting at which termination of this Declaration is to be considered by the membership pursuant to the petition filed with the Association shall be the presence of Members plus proxies entitled to cast sixty percent $(60 \%)$ or more of the total vote of the membership. If such quorum is not present, subsequent meeting(s) may be called until a guorum is present, subject to the same notice requirements, and the required quorum at such subsequent meeting(s) shall be one-half (1/2) of the required quorum at the immediately preceding meeting.

If the Members vote to terminate this Declaration in accordance with the foregoing requirements, then the president and Secretary of the Association shall execute in recordable form a certificate which shall set forth at least the following information: the Resolution of Termination adopted by the Association, the date of the meeting of the Association at which such resolution was adopted, the date that potice of such meeting, was given, the total number of votes required to constitute a quonm at such meeting; the total number of votes present at such, meeting; the total number of voles necessary to adopt the resolution terminating the Declaration; the total number of votes cast in favor of such resolution; and the tolal number of votes cast against the resolution. Such certificate shall be recorded in the Currituck County, North Carolina Registry no later than thirty ( 30 ) days following the date such resolution of termination is passed by the membership, and such certificate may be relied upon for the corrcotness of the facts contained therein as they relate to the termination of this Declaration.

Section 14.02. Amendment Subject to the limitations hereinafter contained, this Declaration or any Supplemental Declaration heeto may be amended or modified at any time prior to December 31, 2037 by an instrument signed by the Owners entitled to exercise not less then seventy five ( $75 \%$ ) of the total votes in the Associstion as set forth in this Declaration, provided, however, that no such amendment shall be effective without the written consent of Declarant so long as there is Class B Membership, and in no event shall any amendment limit the rights of Declarant under this Declaration so long as there is a Class $\mathcal{B}$ Membership. With respect to any amendments affecting specific Limited Common Property, the foregoing percentages are required only of those Owners of Lots or Dwelling Units that are located in the chase or section of the Development to which such Limited Conmon Area relates.

In addition to the foregoing rights, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary that may appear herein. Declarant may (at Declarant's option) at any time and from time to time amend or modify this Declaration and any Supplemental Declaration without obtaining the consent or approval of the Menbers or any other person or entity if such amendment or modification is necessary for any one of more of the following purposes: to correct an obvious typographical error; to cause this Declaration or any such Supplemental Declaration to comply with the requirements of FHA (Federal Housing Administration), VA (Veterans Administration), Fannie - Mae (Federal National Mortgage Administration), Office Of Interstate Land Sales Registration of the Department Of Housing And Urban Development (OILSR) or other similar agency; or as may be necessary to establish or maintain the tax exempt status of the Association under the laws of the United States or the State of North Carolina.

All amendments to this Declaration must be recorded in the Currituck County, North Carolina Registry and shall not become effective until recorded. With respect to amendments that require approval of the Owners, all such amendments also shall be cxecuted by the Association, following determination by the Board that the amendment has been duly approved by the required percentage of Owners (for the purpose of this determination, the Board may rely on its most current membership list and shall not be recuired to conduct any title examination of any Lot to determine ownership thereof). The Board shall make its determination (and cause the amendments) to be recorded if the Board determines that the required number of Owners have executed the amendment(s) within thirty ( 30 ) days of receipt of the proposed amendment(s) purportedly signed by the required number of Owners. If the Board determines that the required number of Owners have executed the proposed amendment(s), the Board shall cause the amendment(s) to be recorded.

With respect to amendments by the Declarant which do not require the assent of the Owners, the Association also shall execute such amendments prior to the recordation thereof so that such amendments may be indexed in the Currituck County Registry in the name of the Association as well as in the name of the Declarant.

Section 14.03. Remedies. Declarant, the Association, and every Owner shat have the right to enforce the terms, covenants, conditions, restrictions, easements, charges and lieas for which provision is made in this Declaration, which enforcement shall be by any proceeding at law or in equity (or otherwise, as provided in this Declaration) against any Person violating or attempting to violate any such term, covenant, condition, restriction, easement, charge or lien either to restrain violation or to recover damages, and against the land, to enforce any lien created by these covenants; and failure by the Assoetation, Declarant or any Owner to enforce any such term, covenant, condition, restriction, easement, charges or lien shall in no event be deemed a waiver of the right to do so thereater or a waiver of any other or future violation of any of same.

Section 14.04. Severabilify of Previsions. If any pragraph, section, sentence, clause or phrase of this Deciaration shall be or become illegal, null or void for any reason or shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, null or void, the remaining paragraphs, sections, sentences, clauses and phrases of this Declaration shall contintue in fuill force and effect and shall not be affected thereby, It is hereby dechared that said remaining paragraphs, sections, sentences, clauses and phrases would have been and are imposed irrespective of the fact that any one or more other paragraphs, sections, sentences, clauses or phrases shall become or be illegal, null or void.

Section 14.05. Notice. Except as otherwise provided herein, whenever written notice to an Owner (including Declarant) is required hereunder, such notice shall be given by the mailing of same, postage prepaid, to the address of such Owner appearing on the records of the Association. If notice is given in such manner, such notice shali be conclusively deened to have been given by placing same in the United States mail properly addressed, with postage prepaid, whether received by the addressee or not. It shall be the duty of each Owner to keep the Association informed of such Owner's current mailing adoress and telephone number. The Association may use the address of such Owner's Lot listed with the Currifuck County Tax Office.

Section 14.06. Interpretation. In all cases, the provisions set forth or provided for in this Declaration shall be construed together and given that interpretation or construction which, in the opinion of Declarant or Board, will best effect the intent of the general plan of development. The provisions hereof shall be liberally interpreted and, if necessary, they shall be so extended or onlarged by implication as to make them fully effective. The provisions of this Declaration shall be given full force and effect notwithstanding the existence of any zoning ordinance or building codes which are less restrictive.

Section 14.07. No Trespass. Whenever the Association, Declarant, the ASC, and their respective successors, assigns, agents or employees are permitted by this Declaration to enter upon or correct, repair, clean, maintain, preserve or do any other action within any portion of Corolla Bay, the catering thereon and the taking of such action shall not be deemed to be trespass.

Section 14.08. Successors of the Declarant. Any and all rights, reservations, easements, interests, exemptions, privileges and powers of the Declarant hereunder, or any part of them, may be assigned and transferred (exclusively or non-exclusively) by the Declarant by instrumeat in writing and recorded in the Currituck County Registry.

Section 14.09. No Partition. Except as is permitted in the Declaration or amendments thereto, there shall be no judicial partition of the Common Areas or any part thereof, nor shall any Person acquiring any interest in the Property or any part thereof seek any judicial partition unless the Property or such portion thereof bave been removed from the provisions of this Declaration. This Article shall not be construed to prohibit the Association from acquiring and disposing of tangible personal property nor from scquiring title to real property which may nor may not be subject to this Declaration.
Section 14.10. Combination of Lots. For so long as there is a Class B Membership, no Lot shall be subdivided without the written consent of Declarant. Otre or more Lots may be combined into a single Lot with the written consent of Declarant and, upon such combination and consent of Declarant, the resulting Lot shall be considered as one Lot for the purposes of this Dectaration. Frovided, the foregoing shall not prohibit or restrict the right (which is hereby reserved) of Declarant to subdivide, combine, re-subdivide, recombine, or re-record maps relating to, any Lots subject to this Declaration.

Section 14.11. Laws of North Caroling and the United Stafes. This Declaration shall be subject to and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of North Carolina and all applicable laws and regulations of the United States of America.

Section 14.12. loinder of Tastee and Beneficiary. Trustee and Lender join in the execution of this Declaration to consent to the terms of the same and subordinate the lien of any deed of trust to the Trustee for the benefit of Lender encumbering the Property to the provisions of this Declaration.

Section 14.13. Joinder of Corolla Soundside, LLC and Corolla Oceanside, LLC. Corolla Soundside, LLC and Corolla Oceanside, LLC join the execution of this Declaration for the purpose of consenting that properties that may be presently invested in their companies will have portions dedicated as amenities to Corolia Bay, LLC as Common Elements as set forth in Section 1.11, the same consisting of piers and gazebo and a bathhouse and parking area for access to the beach.
